

ALANAH WHITE

Alanah has had a diverse and successful DJ career spanning over 12 years. She started her journey in South Australia, performing venues in the Adelaide Hills at the age of 17, playing at various events such as discos, house parties, school formals, and 21st birthdays. Her talent caught the attention of scouts, and she was offered opportunities to perform in nightclubs across Adelaide.

One of her significant achievements was being selected as a resident DJ at the Dog and Duck night club, where she played for four years. During her residency, she entertained large crowds of enthusiastic partygoers night after night, establishing a strong presence in the Adelaide club scene. Following her successful stint at the Dog and Duck, Alanah went on to become a regular DJ at other popular venues like Zhivago, Apple Bar, and Hacienda Night Clubs.

Through her own DJ business, Alanah caters to a variety of events. She specializes in playing at weddings, engagement parties, wineries, rural events (such as in Mt Gambier), and other private occasions. However, her love for music and passion for DJing have led her to explore new opportunities in Darwin, where she plans to further expand her career.

Alanah's extensive experience and versatile musical repertoire allow her to cater to a wide range of tastes. She excels at playing funk, disco, house, as well as music from the 70s, 80s, and early 2000s to the present. Moreover, she is open to discussing individual clients' requests to ensure a personalized and memorable event.

With her talent, professionalism, and dedication to her craft, Alanah continues to make a name for herself in the DJing industry, offering a unique and enjoyable musical experience for all.
