

DJ RICA G – BIO INFO

Breaking into Darwin's club scene more than a decade ago, DJ RICA G quickly and firmly established herself as one of the Top End's definitive and homegrown female DJs.

Best known for playing R&B/hip-hop party tunes, over time the accumulated experience performing in diverse and energetic situations led her to develop and refine a signature style filled with music from all genres. This versatility led to multiple residencies at almost every venue between Darwin and Palmerston translating into opportunities to support iconic visiting guest DJs and live music artists at several music festivals and parties, both locally and interstate.

Whether booking DJ RICA G for a private party or a club gig, rest assured she will deliver the required energy and ambience to any dancefloor.