

Born and raised in the NT, was initially inspired by performing arts after seeing his first High School Musical performance at the age of 15. From that point on has never looked back after beginning to play guitar at the age of 16 and being heavily involved in the next two High School Musicals that were performed at his School.

Growing up with very heavy musical influences all through childhood and beyond, Jaxon was always aware that he would be a performer. It was just a simple matter of time, during that time he has drawn influence and inspiration from countless amounts of artists from different eras and strives to share what he has to offer to whatever audience/crowd is present.

Also being a member of a Local Darwin band who go by the name of At the Dakota, he still manages to find time for his own performances whether they be originals or covers. Operating around town with his own PA setup, Jaxon always strives to improve his performance(s) with the feedback he receives and maintains a humble persona and enjoys a laugh.
