

Scott Murphy has been a professional musician for over 15 years, playing in some of the biggest coverbands (Metrik, 23 Past, Adam 12, Rockstar, KISS THISS [Kiss tribute show]) in Melbourne up until August 2011 when he moved up to Darwin to join Dr Elephant. More recently he has been playing solo acoustic shows covering all genres and playing with his partner (Chrissa Valanti) in their original act 'Valanti' who has toured Europe, The US and Thailand. You can get their music on iTunes. Scott is looking forward to a even bigger 2013 as he has established a solid reputation with both punters and venues across the NT in 2012. No single artist on the Primetime roster has achieved what Scott has in Darwin in such a short time.
