

Leigh Chisholm - Biography

With an eclectic repertoire of Solo acoustic covers, Leigh Chisholm provides a Live Music Performance tailored to suit your event.

The talented, Brisbane born, singer/songwriter proceeded to pursue study in audio production while his passion for guitar and vocals became well-established. Coming from a musical background, having a world-class musician for a Father and a Filipino Mother meant that singing and an instrument became a huge part of his upbringing.

Leigh customises his repertoire to suit every occasion including weddings, formal dinners, corporate and private functions. He's graced the stage performing at high profile events before the Chief Minister and has performed as the opening act for headliners including Silverchair, Pete Murray and Jimmy Barnes.

A permanent fixture in Darwin's live music scene for 10 years he now performs exclusively as a vocal/guitar soloist with regular appearances at reputable venues in and around the CBD. Leigh's an experienced and popular musician who understands the entertainment requirements for any occasion. A popular choice amongst event organisers and customers alike – you won't be disappointed.
