

Max Fredericks is a singer/ songwriter/ guitarist/ entertainer aka the walking jukebox. He plays between seven and ten shows per week solo, duo and in his band. His repertoire spans across six decades which means that Max can cater to any age groups. In the past Max has performed at the Mathew Street Festival in Liverpool (now known as the Liverpool Music Festival) and has travelled extensively around Australia and the world performing in various formats in prestigious venues including the Sydney Opera House. He recently released an album of his original material and released it the Darwin Entertainment Centre.

Max also performs in shows including The Beatles, Neil Diamond, Oasis, Crowded House and Powderfinger Shows.

You can catch Max at most venues around Darwin.

