

Ambrose Nicholls - Bio

Crank up the sound! Ambrose Nicholls-Skene has been bringing songs alive for the past 20 years working both in bands and as a solo guitarist/singer.

Having started his career in Melbourne, Ambrose has called Darwin home for over 10 years playing solo and with some of Darwin's finest musicians in bands such as Silverback, T43, Tiffany Cornell and the Men of Ill Repute and the NT Blues Brothers Revival.

Ambrose brings to life the songs of The Black Keys, Avicii, Daft Punk, Counting Crows, Mumford and Sons, Maroon 5 and many more. Ambrose covers all styles from rock, pop, funk, blues and country, with tempos and songs suited to background music for a Sunday Session through to up-tempo party music. Ambrose also has a acoustic set of original music he will be releasing in 2015.

Ambrose is currently playing regularly around Darwin at private functions, weddings and at many popular venues around Darwin such as Darwin Ski Club, local pubs and Skycity Casino.

Ambrose is also a regular performer at corporate events, private functions, and weddings – performing solo, as a duo or with his 5-piece band Silverback.
