

Eclipse Duo

are a husband and wife team who have played music together and with other line-ups for more than twenty five years in venues across Australia.

The duo offers a broad selection of music, Eclipse Duo's extensive and varied repertoire enables them to cater for a wide variety of functions, from conferences and festivals to pubs and clubs.

Linda and Lindsay also pride themselves on creating a good rapport with the audience while involving them in antics throughout their lively and entertaining shows.

While both members are accomplished vocal soloists, they compliment each other with their backing harmonies.

Lindsay has edited the sequenced backing to the highest quality, providing a full band sound, while his expertise on guitar gives the band a live feel.

To give that extra lift to your function, contact Eclipse Duo and we can discuss what you want for your next function.
