

A Tribute to The Andrews Sisters

Linda, Annemarie and Yvette pay tribute to the 1940s sweethearts of the forces....

The Andrews Sisters. Bringing to you the sisters most famous songs; Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy from Company B, Don't sit under the apple tree, In the mood, Apple blossom time, In the Cool of the evening, just to name a few.

The troupe have performed around Darwin and travelled to several parts of Australia entertaining at conferences and special occasions like, Bombing of Darwin, RSL events, Festivals and Resorts. The Trio continue to captivate Audiences by their portrayal of the original group.

The girls with their rich, warm vocals and intricate harmonies will stun you and their fun interactive antics on stage will delight you.

Audiences will be transported back in time to a unique era of wartime romance and the guests can have photos taken with the girls as they mingle amongst the tables after the show.

A Tribute to The Andrews Sisters can customise their show to suit your event, we offer two 40 minute sets, with a costume change, or you can have one set with one of the costumes of your choice.

The girls are professional musicians with many years experience in the Industry, specialising in the Conference market.

Having worked extensively in the corporate scene, we know the do's and don't's of formal procedures.

In addition we can also offer a live 6 piece band, or Duo to entertain the guests before or after the floor show,
