

Jigsaw Collective

Jigsaw Collective are heading towards being a nationally reputable jazz-fusion outfit with accolades such as Winner of the International Zildjian Forum Battle of the Bands, Territory Winner of the University Battle of the Bands, showcases at the Adelaide Fuse and Fringe Festivals, headlining the Isotopia Festival in 2007, performing as the house band for the closing of the Darwin Festival in 2008 including at the Lighthouse at Darwin Festivals 2011 , 2012 and 2013.

Also, Jigsaw Collective more recently performed at the AHA Gold Plate Awards in 2015, the Australia Day Council Ball and the Government House Open Day in 2017.

Jigsaw Collective maintain an upbeat vibe through jazz and blues influenced tunes that are sometimes serious and sometimes ridiculous but always fun with a healthy dose of the laid back Northern Territory sense of humour.

Jigsaw Collective are excellent entertainment for any event from festivals to functions, weddings, parties and anything else where there might be room to groove.
